

Afghan Hound Association

Established 1927

“SEMINAR AND JUDGES ASSESSMENT”

28th October 2017 Ashorne Village Hall , Ashorne, Warwickshire CV35 9DR

PROGRAMME : MORNING (10 am – 12.30 pm)

A Presentation and Seminar with added extras : be entertained and learn. Fun questionnaire for all attendees – tip : just learn your standard to win a prize !

“From Ghenghis Khan to Prince Amir of Khinjan ?” Susan Rhodes - a whistle stop tour from there to here !

“The essential things to remember about Afghan Hounds are ...” Mark Coccozza – breed specific guidance for here and now !

Hands On opportunity – small groups and the chance for one-to-one mentoring.

Lunch : will be served at around 12.30 pm

Tea/coffee/refreshments : will be available during the afternoon.

Cost : £15.00 members ; £18.00 non members including lunch and refreshments

AFTERNOON (1.30 pm – 4.00 pm) Breed Specific Assessment for aspiring judges . You will be asked to examine 5 Afghan Hounds and place them in order of merit according to you. You will then be asked to run briefly through your reasons for this to a panel of assessors and possibly answer a few straightforward questions they may have for you. Do not worry. Just have reasons for your decisions.

All enquiries to Ian Fisher : email - ahasecretary@yahoo.co.uk

Book early as space is limited for the assessment. Please send remittance in advance to secure place to Ian Fisher, 22, Mountfield Close, Culverstone, Meopham, Kent DA13 0UJ

(Please note we now have no places left for the assessment but Ian Fisher has opened a waiting list and if we have sufficient demand we will arrange another day of assessment. If you are interested send Ian your details.)